Invitation Letter

Dear Ms. Azra Ghandeharion,

On behalf of the ICLA 2010 Korean Organizing Committee, I would like to express my deep appreciation to you for your contribution and commitment to the XIXth Congress of International Comparative Literature Association (ICLA) which will be held in Seoul, Korea, from August 15 to 21, 2010.

As your papers entitled "Reading the Positive Side of Narcissism as Disorder in the Confessional Art of Ginsberg and Kahlo" have been accepted for presentation to the section of "CS2-02", "The Adaptation(S) of Adaptation in Fractal Paintings of Farshchian as Fine-Popular Art" have been accepted for presentation to the section of "CS2-06", "Paradise Lost(s) as a Hypertextual Archetype in Milton's Paradise Lost and Tykwer's Heaven" have been accepted for presentation to the section of "GS40", "World Wide Web and Intertextual Postmodernism in Media" have been accepted for presentation to the section of "GS7", ICLA 2010 cordially invites you to attend and present it at the congress.

This event will be truly a meaningful gathering of the great minds, coming together in Seoul to address and collectively search for a viable solution to the crisis of humanities studies. I also hope that the international literary community will have an opportunity to share ideas and friendship through this Congress and onwards.

I am delighted to invite you to participate in this grand occasion for the sharing of ideas, friendship, and culture in the hospitality that Korea will offer this summer. I look forward to seeing you in Seoul.

Sincerely yours,

Chung Ho Chung

Chung Ho Chung
Chair, the Organizing Committee of
ICLA 2010 in Seoul, Korea
